17 Negro Newspapers Back Humphrey Ticket

WASHINGTON — (Special) — The Afro-American Newspapers, the nation's largest single chain of Negro owned newspapers, endorsed Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Senator Edmund S. Muskie this week in a front page editorial.

The semi-weekly publication with headquarters in Baltimore Md., thus became the 17th Negro owned newspaper to endorse the Democratic candidate. The chain publishes additional newspapers in Washington, Richmond, Philadelphia, and Newark.

The Afro-American editorial urged readers to "do your thing at the ballot box November 5" by voting for the Humphrey-Muskie ticket. "Every voter who fails to answer the call gambles on a future reconstruction era with dreadful options" the newspaper said.

The text of the editorial, in part, reads:

"Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, on his record and position on the issues, clearly is the man this troubled nation needs for President.

"He has the intelligence, courage, vision, leadership, statesmanship and deep concern for the welfare of human beings — black and white — that this challenging age demands.

"American voters on November 5 may well determine the fate of the world, our Republic and our Democratic way of life. A mistake could prove disastrous.

The three part editorial carried the headline "Vote Yes For Humphrey-Muskie — Nixon No — Wallace Nerve."

The newspaper also released further results of its survey which indicates that Vice President Humphrey will poll from 80-90 per cent of the Negro vote, editor Moses Newson said.

Newson said the newspaper has queried some 500 readers, but the results are still not complete. The final survey count will be announced next week.

Other major Negro newspapers which have editorially endorsed the Humphrey-Muskie ticket thus far are the New York Amsterdam News, Michigan (Detroit) Chronicle, Pittsburgh Courier, Oklahoma (Tulsa) Eagle, Chicago Crusader, Minneapolis Suokeman, Los Angeles Sentinel, Miami Times, Norfolk Journal and Guide, Washington Observer, St. Louis American, St. Louis Sentinel, Kansas City Star, Wilmington (N.C.) Journal, Washington Informer and the Clarion (Ohio) Defender.

John H. Murphy III, president of the Afro American newspapers is also president of the National Newspaper Publishers Association, an organization of approximately 100 Negro owned publications. A survey of editorial opinion of all the newspapers is being completed this week.

Three Memphians Die In Alabama Accident

Funeral arrangements were incomplete on Monday for three Memphians who were killed in an automobile accident in Cherokee, Ala., on Saturday afternoon at 5:25 while headed back to Memphis. The victims were Edward Wallace, 55 of 1446 Ledger; Ernest Dotstry, 54, of 1778 Keltner Circle, and Mrs. Lou E. Mimms, 41, daughter of I. W. Hinds of 601 S. Lauderdale.

It was learned here on Monday that the three had gone to Alabama to carry Mr. Hinds to a small town in that state, and were headed back to Harvester Company. He had lived in Chicago, but had moved back to Memphis in 1954. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Inez Wallace.

Mr. Dotstry, a native of Raleigh, Tenn., served in the Memphis when the car driven by Mr. Wallace crashed head-on into another vehicle.

The passengers in the other car were only slightly injured, according to Alabama state troopers.

Negro Girls To Ride On Rose Parade Float

A contest to select four junior misses to ride the Memphis Sesquicentennial float in the New Year's Day Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day, Jan. 1, 1969, is now in progress, and Howard Willey, president of the Sesquicentennial observance said the four will serve as attendants to Miss Susan Holder, the reigning Maid of Cotton.

In order to be representative of the total Memphis population, two of the girls will be black and two white.

Entrants in the contest must not be younger than eight nor more than 11 years of age. The winners will receive all-expense paid trips to Pasadena, accompanied by chaperones, to represent Memphis in the Rose Bowl game and visit tourist attractions in the area.

"Residents of Memphis and Shelby County will be eligible," Mr. Willey said. "Because these four teenagers will be representing the total community before an estimated nationwide television audience of more than 100 million, we are interested in projecting the nature of the total community. A secret panel of judges has been instructed to keep this in mind when se-

FAMU Rattlers Shake TSU Big Blues 32-13

By EARL S. CLANTON III

TALLAHESSEE, Fla.—Coach John A. Merritt's Tennessee State football team (3-2) will have another week to wait for victory because the Florida A&M Rattlers stung the Big Blues 32-13 here under the lights last Saturday night.

Coach Jack Gaither, the much quoted Rattler mentor, uncorked all his stops for the record-shattering 16,000, standing-room only crowd in Bragg Stadium. The Rattlers struck for their opening tally in the first 2:22 minutes of the game.

Three fumbles and a bad snap from center set up all but one of Florida's scores. Big Blues' Clarence Love fumbled the opening kickoff which the Rattlers covered on State's 20. In three plays, Keen Riley hit Al Sykes for the 28 and Horace Lovett toed the extra point.

Six minutes later, Charlie Thomas bobbled Lovett's punt and Florida recovered the pigskin on the State 14. This time the land-o-sunshine boys had to settle for a 31 yard field goal booted by Lovett, yet mangled a 10-0 lead going into the second quarter.

Featuring short passes to Joe Cooper and Albert Davis, Big Blue quarterback, Bob Shannon, drove 70 yards for the Merrittmen's first score. The drive, kept alive by 42 yards of pass interference calls against Florida, worked its way to the one yard line where Shannon rammed in for the TD. J.W. Jones booted the extra point and the Big Blues trailed by a mere three points at intermission.

Fielding the ball first after halftime, A & M's offensive machine stalled and Dewitt Anderson was forced to punt from his own 40. Cliff Brooks fumbled the punt allowing Rattler Leroy Charlton to recover the ball on state's 27. In six plays Riley drove to State's two and then flipped a two-yard scoring pass to Mel Jones with 10:03 to play in the third period.

With 14 seconds left in the third stanza, Florida's Hunert Ginn jitterbugged his way through the Big Blue line to paydirt five yards away capping the game's longest (70-yards) sustained scoring drive.

Florida scored again in the opening three minutes of the final stanza. Preparing to punt on fourth down, from his own 22, quarterback Shannon got a bad snap from center and threw the ball for an incomplete pass allowing Florida to gain possession from there. Riley used three plays and capped the score with a 19 yard toss to Bob Lampkin to give his team a 32-7 advantage with 11:34 remaining in the ball game.

Tackle King Dunlap, who played the best game of his career in a losing cause, recovered a Rattler fumble on the Florida 48. Quarterback Shannon hit Maceo Coleman with a nine-yarder and behind perfect pass protection, he let fly a 39-yard pass to Cooper standing at the paymaster's window. The extra point pass failed with just a little over 6 minutes to play.

Next Saturday the Merrittmen return to their home field, the new 16,000-seat W. J. Hale Stadium for an afternoon game against Southern University. Both the Big Blues and the Jaguars will be trying to end losing streaks. Merritt's crew's defeats have come one behind the other. However, both games have been on the road.

test march for hospital workers on strike. Standing with him near entrance to A.M.E. Minimum Salary Building are, from left, Elder Gilbert Patterson, pastor of Holy Temple

Church of God in Christ; Atty. W. Otis Higgs and Lee Allen Spight. Mr. Brown has the backing of a number of prominent Memphians in his first quest for public office.

Man, 80, Slays Woman Who Tried To Leave Him

When Mrs. Maggie Beatrice Ingram, 34, of 566 Marble started picking up her clothes 10 minutes after midnight last Friday and told Foster Harris, 80, of the same address that she was going away for a few days with her brother-in-law who was outside in a car with the motor idling, he was afraid it would be the last time he would ever see her.

Mrs. Ingram and Harris had been living together for the past three years, and he recently began accusing her of taking his money and spending it on younger men.

After such arguments, however, they would always make up, he told police, but he still feared that she was going to leave him.

So when Mrs. Ingram started for the door with a few of her clothes at 12:10 Saturday morning Harris grabbed an old single-barrel shotgun and fired once. The blast struck the victim in the chest.

Before he had a chance to reload and open the door, Harris said he heard the car out front take off at high speed. The occupant has not identified himself.

Following the shooting, Harris went to a cafe about a block from his home and called the police.

Mrs. Ingram was dead when officers arrived.

Harris appeared in City Court on Monday morning, but his arraignment was postponed because he did not have an attorney.

RUMORS FLYING

Will Mahalia Remarry?

CHICAGO —The controversial, divorce-disrupted marriage of Mahalia Jackson, the world's leading singer of gospel music, may be on the way back, it appears, despite a recent press release from her public relations consultants, Lee Dale Associates, denying a Chicago newspaper columnist's report that Mahalia had given her former husband, Sigmund Galloway, a new Lincoln Continental as a symbol of their love.

The press release indicated that while Miss Jackson would not demand a retraction of the printed claim or demand an apology, she was thoroughly peeved at the published remark.

Miss Jackson was quoted as saying "Why would I buy him such an unnecessary luxury?" The release added that Galloway is employed as a musi-

Although she admitted that her ex-husband has been trying to get back with her since the divorce, she would not comment on the possibility of a reconciliation at this time. Observers and friends of the singer have high hopes that the two will remarry.

An indication of this was seen when Miss Jackson announced plans to sell her plush Southside home to purchase a $96,000 residence in the Cornell Condominium in fashionable Hyde Park. The new home will be a duplex apartment with a private elevator. Miss Jackson suffers from asthma.

Mr. Rainey said that he understands the problems of all people, since he began life on the poverty level and has experienced other economic levels of living.

"I will work for economy in county and city offices where the duplication exists. In this way, many, many thousands of dollars of the taxpayer's money will be saved," he said.

His platform includes opposition to any tax increase, work to improve all educational facilities and establishment of more technical trade schools and junior colleges.

"It has never been more essential for the people of Memphis and Shelby County to elect a man who understands and will respond to the needs of the community," he added.

Mr. Rainey is married and the father of a 16-year-old girl and two boys, 12 and eight.

Fairer Coverage Needed In Ghetto

NEW YORK — Two executives of the broadcasting industry, meeting in the Fall conference of the National Association of Broadcasters here, agreed that future coverage of riots should require prior "insurance of a fair shake" for Negroes in presentation of views, and the hiring of much-needed Negro staffers immediately.

Surgent is the need for reporters, announcers and cameramen who can fairly present the viewpoint of blacks in the coverage of today's local, national and world events, said one of the industry executives, Herbert Cahan, of Group W, Baltimore, that "you have to make effort to hire Negro staffers. For instance, when a vacancy comes, up, you may simply have to say you are going to fill it with a Negro. You may have to lean over backwards to make it happen."

Cahan and John Burgeen, vice president of WAVA, Washington, D. C., casting executive from the were members of a panel at the closing session of the broadcasting industry conference here and were discussing the subject: "The Big Stand Decisions."

Strike Efforts Stepped-Up

The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees union spokesman Jessie Epps announced that the striking workers would "Move in a more concerted effort to project the issues involved. We will as a part of our program increase our marches and demonstrations in the downtown area."

Mr. Epps said that night marches have been scheduled in the downtown area. Such marches will continue as necessary with additional marches to take place in residential sections of the community.

In a paper prepared by the union it was stated "We feel there is an immediate need to resume negotiations, however, we feel that without demonstrations, no constructive effort will be made by the city at this time." It went on to say, "We also hope that the posture of the city would change to allow a quick resolution to these problems."

Last Saturday some 3,000 supporters of the strike marched from Clayborne Temple to city hall "to show the type of support given the strike."

The strike reached its high point on Monday Oct. 21, as fights and scuffles occurred at City of Memphis Hospital Complex.

READ MY AMAZING STORY, WHAT PRAYER AND THE AMAZING REV. COSTONIE DID FOR ME

Mr. Lewis Rubio

111 So. Halsted, Chicago, Ill.

My problem was money and a place to live. When you have three children, no one wants to rent to you. My wife and I know REV. COSTONIE because he caused her younger brother to walk two years ago although my father-in-law had been told he would never walk in life. I knew REV. COSTONIE's way of prayer would really work, so we went to see him. He got good results for us quickly. We now have a nice apartment and I am working steadily.

MR. LEWIS RUBIO

People who doubt REV. COSTONIE should go to his services on Sunday at 5001 S. Ellis Ave., from 1:30 p.m. There you will meet people and hear them testify how prayer really works. Anyone with a problem should write to REV. COSTONIE and ask for one of his prayers at 927 E. 47th St., Chicago, Ill., 60653. If you care to you may call us at 372-1878 for it would take pages to tell you our entire story and how REV. COSTONIE has helped us. Now, in appreciation, we are helping to raise money for the downpayment on the church they are buying. If you care to help, send all contributions to Faith Temple Church, 927 E. 47th St., Chicago, Ill.

Lane Alumni Get Set For Homecoming

The Jackson Chapter of the Lane College Alumni Association met recently to discuss plans for Homecoming, November 16. Hundreds of alumni are expected from all parts of the states to cheer "Dear Ole Lane" to victory against Knoxville.

Following the game alumni will sip and chat at a "Coffee Hour" in the faculty lounge of the C. A. Kirkendall Student Union Building.

The day's celebrations will be climaxed with music by the Samuel Polk Band of Memphis at the Steak House on Highway 45 South, for alumni and visiting friends with a special ceremony at intermission for all alumni. Mrs. Mae Cheairs is president of the chapter.

Tensions Are High At Central State

WILBERFORCE, Ohio — A "ticklish situation" has developed at Central State University since the highway patrol increased its surveillance near the campus, according to Dr. E. O. Woolfolk, vice-president for academic affairs.

"Anti-police sentiment is rising and increased interaction between police and students could result in consequences we are anxious to avoid," he said. "We do not want to see anyone hurt."

CSU leader said he recognized that the state highway patrol must perform its duties and that it is justly concerned with the safety of its personnel and its patrol station that was recently hit by 13 bullets.

"But the safety and dignity of our students are also involved," Dr. Woolfolk said. "My experiences indicate that the intensification of patrol activity near a campus like ours usually has negative rather than positive effects."

Woolfolk said some CSU students "come from ghetto areas wherein police have been involved in payoffs from vice rings in addition to more overt criminal act." More students have encountered "blatant and notorious bigotry" in dealing with police, he said. "Some have heard racist, anti-black slogans and epithets spoken by police."

Such unfortunate experiences, Dr. Woolfolk pointed out, "do not lead to good rapport between black students and police. We are trying to educate these young people and we have problems enough without trying to overcome distractions created by apparent excesses of persons many students consider to be agents of those wanting to suppress or exploit the black man."

Woolfolk said he hoped the highway patrol leaders would understand "the present racial climate of our country" and consider that many CSU students are "agonized and bewildered in a new black awareness of the degradation they and their ancestors have endured for almost 250 years."

Serving 1,000,000 Negroes in the Tri-State Area

Reasons For Voting

Voting on the Presidential candidates is not far off. This may be the most momentous decision the American electorate is called upon to make. Upon it rests the destiny of his nation. Not only in politics, but also on the nature of the moral leadership the United States is willing to provide the western world.

The kind of President we elect will determine in large measure whether we will have peace at home through removal of the social causes that breed disaffection and disorders, or whether the Federal government will initiate an inordinate drive for law and order, for suppression of dissent and discontentment at the expense of freedom and social justice.

The equation of electoral choice involves also the kind of foreign policy the new Administration will pursue. Whether we shall be brought closer to the brink of war with China or Russia or whether genuine and relentless crusade for peace shall mark the goal of the new President, are conjectures that will be resolved by the ballot box.

Thus, the election imposes an obligation of the highest order on the American people. It is therefore disquieting to hear that Negroes are being urged not to go to the polls. This, they are told, is the best way of indicating their dissatisfaction with the Presidential candidates and their views.

To carry out this resolve is to abdicate the all-important vested power of the electorate in a representative government. Voting is essential to the preservation of an continuity of the democratic process.

To be sure the changes that we want will not come by self-denial of the precious right to vote. Reprehensible policies or mandates will not be altered or rescinded by the voters staying away from the ballot box.

Negroes, who are yet fighting for first-class citizenship, can least afford to surrender their rights to the ballot box by indulging in a nihilism negates their own best interests. We have fought too long for this precious constitutional prerogative to forfeit it at this crucial juncture. The ballot is our best weapon for carving out a place for ourselves and our children in a free society.

Platform Of Wallace

George Wallace's American Independent Party platform is nothing more than a tedious rendition of what the third party Presidential candidate has been saying on the stump. Accusing the federal judiciary of promoting national "turmoil and near-revolutionary conditions," the platform proposes a constitutional amendment that would require federal district judges periodically "to face the electorate" on their records.

If the citizens voted no on any judge's record, his seat would be declared vacant and a successor appointed. Supreme Court justices and judges of the Federal Appellate courts would have to face periodic reconfirmation by the Senate "at reasonable intervals."

In the past, Wallace had advocated this approach for district judges as well. The platform also calls for a purge of Defense Department officials, presumably civilian, who, it says, "have fostered the 'no win policy' in Vietnam. Wallace promises every effort to end the war, vowing not to allow the conflict to drag on indefinitely with its great drain "on our national resources and manpower."

He has a remedy for the ills which afflict the American society, except one: segregation and the slums. He waltzed around the ghetto problem by devoting a long paragraph to crime and disorder. Lawlessness, he says, has become commonplace in our present society. "The permissive attitude of the executive and judiciary who preys on the decent law-abiding citizen is rewarded for his misconduct through never ending justification and platitudes from those in high places who seem to have lost their concern for that vast segment of America that so strongly believes in law and order."

Racial minorities are not mentioned at all in the platform. It logically flaws this absence that in Wallace's social order, there is no room for the black man. And left to him, as he has often hinted, he would either drown all non-white people or place them in concentration camps. No one should doubt that he would pursue with vigor and alacrity one of the two alternatives, if elected to the Presidency.

George Wallace has the Hitler complex both as to race and theory of government. His growing popularity makes him not only a threat to the two-party system, but also to representative government, and to free society.

Warren On Racial Hatred

In a speech that seemed like a valedictory, Chief Justice Earl Warren said the Supreme Court must always stand ready to advance the rights of Negroes and other minority interests if the executive and legislative branches falter.

"The nation did survive the terrible agony of the Civil War, and I am confident that it will survive the present racial crisis and its special agonies if we remain faithful to the solemn commitment to equality embodied in the 14th Amendment 100 years ago," Warren said.

The Chief Justice was addressing a centennial convocation at New York University's School of Law marking the anniversary of the ratification of the 14th Amendment.

He said the Supreme Court in the 1950's provided the necessary push for major national action on behalf of Negro equality. The seriousness of the nation's current racial problems will not permit any slackening of effort by any branch of government.

"All governmental agencies—local, state and national must employ their total resources in seeking solutions to the problems of racial hatred and distrust.

"Vigorous executive and legislative action on behalf of the Negro will be of no avail if the judiciary succumbs to the ambivalent attitude that characterized early 14th Amendment decisions."

The Chief Justice said the high court's essential function is to act as the final arbiter of minority rights. "By remaining a responsive forum of last resort for Negroes and other minority interests, the court can assure that the spirit of the 14th Amendment will become a tangible reality of American life."

May Unveil History

President Francois Duvalier has granted exclusive permission to the Santa Maria Foundation to salvage and authenticate the wreckage of Christopher Columbus' flagship, the Santa Maria. Work is expected to begin in November.

The wreckage has been located off the coast of Haiti where Columbus' log said the ship sank on Christmas Day, 1492. Haitian historians are happy over the matter. They believe that the Santa Maria, which was piloted by black sailors, may yield some evidence to support the long held opinion that skilled African navigators helped Columbus in his search for the New World.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Open Letter To Odel Horton

Dear Defender, The great City of Memphis is like a sizzling volcano which is about to erupt. We feel that our capable and intelligent leaders should step forward and rightfully control this situation.

We plead prayerfully to Mr. Horton to consider intelligently the small issues put before him by the hospital workers, issues that were so small they should have been settled over a cup of coffee with other hospital management and union members.

Please, please Mr. Horton don't let this grow into a situation that will place a black mark on yourself, your family, your friends and your fellowmen.

Mr. Horton, Remember Mr. Loeb's slogan during his campaign for Mayor, or shall I refresh your memory? The slogan, repeatedly was, "Beed, Negro, black Americans, Proud Again!" Think of these three words. There is not a true answer to be derived from this slogan. I beg you do not be a cog in Loeb's Machine.

I am an L.P.N. at the City of Memphis Hospital Complex and have been for thirteen years. Others like me have also worked in charge of wards. Others like me have worked longer. A friend of mine has worked eleven years and has not been absent once. One could go on (one who knows the inside story) and bring to public view all the true dedication and hard work of the hospital employees and yet you sit on your throne of judgement and decide that over thirteen hundred people do not want to work.

Do you realize that you are holding the cards for all these people who have worked endless hours and endless years. Although at times the help has been so acute that some of us have almost gone into frantic hysteria with overwork and strain, great expectations and demands from doctors, and patients. Yet we are expected to grin and bear it.

I have read several letters from the Commercial Appeal's editorial page. I also know some of the writers personally and we also know the people who remain on the job at John Gaston Hospital. As for the true dedication, you and the rest of the people that feel as you do on these particular terms are sadly mistaken. Your most dedicated and devout employees are out on this unnecessary strike waiting to be heard and we will be heard.

If you want true proof of dedication and good workmanship check the hospital files of each person involved completely from the beginning of employment down to this present time, then we will truly feel that you are guided by your true convictions.

A Point Of View

By NAT D. WILLIAMS

CAN WE TALK!

One of the major questions facing Negroes in the United States today is whether or not we can talk to each other.

As things shape up now, there's no telling what the problem is in the Negro community. There's great confusion in the Negroes' thinking today. They can't agree on even the name campaign for Mayor, or shall I refresh your memory? The slogan, repeatedly was, "Beed, Negro, black Americans, Proud Again!" Think of these three words. There is not a true answer to be derived from this slogan. I beg you do not be a cog in Loeb's Machine.

black man's thinking processes. It might be that too many people of color... meaning black people, Negroes' or what have you... are just too confused to know what they want or what is happening.

One may be "black and proud"... but "proud of what?" Too many Negroes are not prepared to tell what they are proud about. Say, Mister, are you proud to be black? If so, what are you proud about? Don't you think that its high time... if you are proud... to spread the word around and tell the world why you are proud? Well.

ONLY IN AMERICA

'Law And Order' In Another Era

By HARRY GOLDEN

"It is the complacency of madness to call such acts as your conviction preserving law and order. Law and order! What oceans of blood and tears are shed in their name."

Thus Helen Keller to Eugene V. Debs in April of 1919 after Debs had been convicted of interfering with the war effort. Eugene Debs was the leader of the American Socialists. After his election, the agitation for commutation of sentence was so strong that President Warren G. Harding pardoned the convicted man.

On Nov. 11, 1897, the day the State of Illinois hanged four of the Haymarket Rioters, the schools let the children out early. On his way home, young Carl Sandburg, in company with other boys, hail one man hail another with four words Sandburg never forgot: "Well, they hanged 'em." The joy with which this information was conveyed shamed Sandburg.

It was a glad howl. Neither his mother's nor his father's defense of the execution diminished his shame.

Five years later John Peter Altgeld pardoned the surviving Haymarket Rioters on the rounds they were innocent. "Does clubbing a man reform him?" asked Altgeld. "Does brutal treatment elevate his thoughts?"

I cannot help but remember these phrases when I hear George Wallace talk of law and order. While Richard Nixon would deplore "crime in the streets" out of existence and Hubert Humphrey finance it out of existence, George Wallace would simply break heads open.

It is an historical fact, I submit, that abolishing crime by breaking open heads is another way to revolution. Strong talk, you say Strong talk, I admit. The trouble with breaking open heads is sooner or later the police will break open the head of the man who is legitimately aggrieved. And after him the man who has no grievance at all.

Zachariah Chafee, one of the most articulate of constitutional authorities, once opined that it was impossible to invent a gun which could shoot a wolf in sheep's clothing and not kill a sheep.

There is no question that George Wallace's idea of law and order is the law and order that often prevails in Neshoba County, Mississippi where deputy sheriffs simply lynch Northern boys who upset the locals.

What worries me about Governor Wallace is not that he is able to disguise certainly what he intends to do: the factory workers whooping it up for his motorcade know what he means. What worries me is that the articulate, intelligent Establishment treats him with deference he doesn't really deserve. There is no reason for experienced newsmen to question George as though his policies were viable.

Why does no one ask him, "Governor Wallace, would you care to estimate the casualty lists for the first year of your Administration?" There is no reason they cannot ask him how he could possibly hope to govern effectively when one-tenth of the electorate will be totally disaffected by his election.

We have hung the Vietnamese War on the shoulders of Hubert Humphrey and pasted his timeless opportunism on the brow of Richard Nixon. There's far more disgraceful acts and attitudes we can hang on George.

A Pronouncement To The City Council

EDITOR'S NOTE: Because of requests by many citizens for the entire statement made by Dr. Ralph Jackson to the City Council in behalf of the striking Hospital Employees, the Tri-State Defender presents the entire text.

A Pronouncement from The Elders, Religious, Civic and Community Leaders of the Black Community to the Members of the City Council of Memphis:

Dear Elected Servants of the People:

How long must we wait?

For too long the white power structure in American cities and communities has presumed to hand pick the leaders of the Black Community.

For too long the members of this white power structure have sat isolated and insulated from the crying needs of the Black Community, making cruel, thoughtless and vicious decisions which have adversely affected the lives and destinies of our people for this day and generations to come.

For too long we (the Black Community) have docilely accepted these hand picked leaders and the cruel, thoughtless, vicious treatment handed out to us by the white power structure downtown.

It has been the "modus operandi" to find a few "Uncle Toms", grease them down with a few flattering words like Reverend, "Doc" and "fessor", and a few dimes or dollars, and tell them that they were a little different and would be given preferential treatment by the power structure, and thus send them back into the Black Community to brainwash and browbeat the others doing the will of those who sent them.

Our purpose (ministers, civic and community leaders) in being here today before this august body is to say to you, sirs, that the day and conditions which we have recited in previous paragraphs are gone forever.

We feel that no real purpose is to be gained from palliatives, generalities or other vague sugar coated statements, designed to make you feel good and pretend that the Black People are satisfied with their present treatment by our City Fathers.

We are tired of being treated like second class citizens. We are fed up with postponements, delays, subterfuges, hypocrisy, false promises and intimidations.

We feel that, given a fair and impartial opportunity, we can make an effective contribution to the good life in America and Memphis.

Recent actions by our City Council give us, however, much cause for concern; and even more than that, it confirms our suspicions that we are being fed "the same old soup warmed over."

The particular action to which we specifically refer at this time is what we feel to be the unwarranted delay in the City Council's approval of the $8,400.00 assistance for MAP South Poverty Program.

We remind you again, sirs, that this is the first time such funds have been requested from City resources.

The County Court approved it last Monday.

The City Council Committee held a hearing last Monday and then the City Council met on Tuesday and after insinuations, intimidations, bullying, pressuring and threatening the Chairman of the Citizens Association of MAP South, the Reverend James Lawson, postponed action on it.

Sirs, how long do you plan to bury your heads in the sand and pretend that nothing is happening?

The Reverend James Lawson has been selected a leader of the Black Community by the Black People themselves. When he speaks, he speaks not only for himself but the rank and file of the Black people in Memphis.

We denounce with all the vigor at our disposal the subtle intimidation directed toward the Reverend James Lawson and the MAP South Poverty Program.

We challenge you to stop applying "band-aids to cancer", healing the surface while the tissue continues to rot beneath.

We urge you to act now to make Memphis truly a place of good abode.

MY VIEWS

An Analysis Of Candidates

By BENJAMIN E. MAYS

George Wallace is a racist. He preaches law and order, but the crime rate in his Alabama is among the highest in the nation. He believes in disorder, because he opposed and opposes Federal law and does not want to see the implementation of court decisions and congressional law. Mr. Wallace contributes to disorder. He does nothing to implement the Civil Rights Voting Act. If he president pack the Court with conservative and reactionary judges who would try to undo the progressive laws that have come into being during the Warren era. It could happen. After all, the Constitution is what nine, seven, or five justices say it is. Nixon thinks no funds should be cut off from a district if it disobeys Federal guidelines. At this point, Mr. Nixon condones the flouting of Federal orders. Riots in the streets must be stopped, but not disobedience to Federal law. Nixon thinks too much money is being wasted on the poor. He thinks private enterprise cannot do this job. My guess is Nixon will provide the Government money and let private enterprise do what it likes with it. He implied in his acceptance speech that he made it from a boy of poor circumstances and this is what he wants for every boy, but he doesn't quite tell us how he made it and that he made it because he is white. He gives no plan for ending the war. His law and order philosophy is closer to Wallace's than to Humphrey's.

Humphrey's concern for the and for Civil Rights dates back to the time when he was mayor of Minneapolis, and to the time when he was putting through Civil Rights legislation as a Senator. He has made it clear that he will do everything possible to stop the war. He has outlined his plans for dealing with the Vietnam war. Humphrey is concerned about an income for everyone so that none will be below the poverty line.

I hope Americans will vote in large numbers, and especially do I trust that Negroes will vote in large numbers; and since Mr. Nixon says he can win with two percent of the Negro vote, I would like to see the other 98 per cent vote for Humphrey since Nixon only needs two per cent.

Information On Jobs

About fifteen openings will exist for individuals interested in training as service station mechanics under the Manpower Development and Training Act project, which began Monday, October 14, 1968. Applicants, 17 years of age and older, may apply at any office of the TENNESSEE DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY. The class, which is taught at the Adult Education Center, will last for 26 weeks, ending April 11, 1969.

The Apprenticeship Information Center at 43 North Cleveland is now recruiting applicants for apprenticeships in all of the building trades, including bricklaying, carpentry, and painting. The apprenticeships vary in length of training from three to five years, with the first six month's salary usually ranging between 40% to 60% of the journeyman's wage, and increasing with skill progress. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age and have a sincere interest in the vocational choice. Further information may be obtained at the AIC, phone 534-6312.

There are still several openings in the six-week refresher course for Registered Nurses, and in order to give more an opportunity to participate, the starting date of the program has been postponed until October 28, 1968. This refresher program is designed for registered nurses who have been out of the profession for at least two years and require some updating of their skills in order to again become active in nursing. Interested persons may obtain additional information at the TENNESSEE DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY, 1295 Poplar.

The TENNESSEE DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY, in cooperation with the Department of Welfare, will receive a total of 600 Shelby County applicants for the Work Incentive Program (WIN) during the course of a year. At the present time there have been eighty-one enrollees, about 10% of which are job ready and have been placed in permanent jobs. Eight have been enrolled in LPN training, three in business courses at the Area Vocational School, and three placed as nurse aides at the Shelby County Hospital. Thirty-two applicants began a 10-week basic education course on October 14 at the Board of Education, working toward their high school equivalency.

Each enrollee of the WIN program is subjected to orientation sessions during which the program is explained and information is presented on how to apply for and hold jobs, who to dress, and the proper attitudes to reflect, as well as what types of jobs are available in the Memphis area. Close follow-up on each applicant placed in permanent employment is also an integral part of the WIN program. This affords both applicant and employer a more satisfactory arrangement, by solving problem as they arise and enabling applicant to become a productive member of the labor force.

This information provided as a service of the Memphis office of your Tennessee Department of Employment Security.

ERMA LEE LAWS

By EMMA LEE LAWS
"One of the most significant steps the Negro can take is the short walk to the voting booth." Martin Luther King, Jr.
Before another issue of your Tri-State Defender comes out, it will be Election Day, and we urge you to get out and vote. Vote for those candidates who show some concern for the black people and whom you think speak to these concerns and will show responsibility toward them. Too long, in the words of Langston Hughes, we have had to say, "I am the American heartbreak — Rock on which Freedom stumps its toe — the great mistake that Jamestown made long ago."

And speaking of voting, the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Executive President, Rev. Andrew Young, and the Program Coordinator the Rev. Bernard Lafayette were through here Tuesday morning on their way to Marks, Mississippi on their campaign of "get out the vote."

And still more politics. Mrs. Burton Joseph, vice chairman and director of Women's Activities for the Democratic National Committee was here Thursday speaking in behalf of the Humphrey-Muskie ticket. There was a reception for the former newspaper woman in the Riverview Room of the Claridge. Mrs. Leland Carter is West Tennessee Vice-President of the Tennessee Federation of Democratic Women.

Club Swirl... Elsie (Mrs. Ted Branch) and Gloria Lindsey were hostesses to Les Girls Saturday evening in the Coffee Room of the Lorraine Motel. Goblins were a riding and the witch's brew was potent potables served from a handsome bar which mellowed the gals for the Halloween games that followed.

Fashionable Dot (Mrs. Walter) Evans won first prize, a new cologne was good smelling too she was first to finish naming the members from the little intimate details provided by the hostesses, Joyce (Mrs. Howard) Pinkston won a pendant for getting more names of well known personalities out of the word. Halloween and Maria (Mrs. Charles) Pinkston was gifted with soap and cologne for coming up with some pretty original tunes from the word Halloween.

Gerri (Mrs. William) Smith received expressions of welcome to the fold. She's the wife of the Rev. Smith, one of our progressive young ministers who stays "on the case" for civil rights. Gerri replaces Julia (Mrs. Jacques) Wilmore who moved with her family to New York where her mate now heads the Civil Rights Commission Office as he did here. The girls sent Julia a handsome handmade pocketbook.

Other Les Girls enjoying the chicken dinner and intimate gathering were Evie (Mrs. Odell) Horton, Velma Lois Jones, Modean (Mrs. Harry) Thompson, Sarah (Mrs. Longino) Cooke, Jr., and DeLores (Mrs. Harold) Lewis.

Others in the circle are Evelyn (Mrs. William) Robertson, Marie Bradford, Gladys (Mrs. Edward) Reed and yours truly.

Shirley McDonald feted the Utopia Bridge Club at her home on Fairmeade and fed them a delicious turkey dinner. These girls are ever on the alert and always bone up on their game conducting the quiz were JoAnn Melton and Mableen Lloyd.

Prize winners were Alice Minor, Mableen Lloyd, (see she practices what she preaches); and Dorothy Atkins, the prexy. Other members are: Cora Beteet, Juanita Crump, Ruth McClure, Vonteta Watson, Clara Partee and Helen Jones.

Cora (Mrs. McCann) Reid entertained the Voulants at the Glenview YMCA and they made plans for a housewarming at the Goodwill Homes.

Voulants are Mattie Crossley, president; Vernette Golden, Vahness Moore, Jeraldine Taylor, Mae Bess Wright, Gloria Lindsey, Minerva Hancock, Ethelyn Earls, Joyce Pinkston, Minerva Johnican, Elsie Branch, Dorris Bodden, Louise Ward, Peggy Brewer, Elsie Malunda, Ernestine McFerren, Ethel Bell, Emma Jean Stotts, Ruby Williamson, Dorothy Jones, Charlotte McLean, Juanita Arnold, Alma Booth, Pauline Tooney, Thelma Davidson, Lois Tarpley, Alma Thornton, Magie Peace, Jewel Speight, Gladys Reed and yours truly.

Manderings... Don't forget the AKAs are presenting their "Fashion Marathon '68" Sunday at the Rosewood. Fashions will be provided by Julius Lewis. This is a project they have every spring but which was postponed last spring out of respect to the martyrdom of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Jackie Brodnax, who has always been one of our favorites, she is such a marvelous young lady with the courage of her convictions, is chalking up her share of air miles. She is a reservations clerk for Delta Airlines and this summer she and her mother, Gladis, island hopped in the Caribbean... San Juan, St. Thomas, and St. Croix and just the other week she was in Montego Bay before going to speak on the weekend in Indianapolis with her brother Terry, who's at Marian College.

And a card from our friend Melba Jones of Detroit found who attended and participated in Toronto visiting Lucy Weidman. Both are former J. Patterson Jr., principal of Memphis and we were all at St. A. together. Melba was a Freeman and Lucy is the daughter of W. P. Porter.

Terry Harris To Claim Bride At St. John

St. John Catholic Church will be the setting for the wedding of Miss Barbara Ann Gentry and Terry David Harris.

Miss Gentry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gentry of 1370 Marechalneil St. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marion D. Harris of 2951 Barron Ave.

A graduate of Melrose High School, Miss Gentry attended LeMoine College and Memphis State University.

Mr. Harris is a graduate of Manassas High School. He is employed at Humko Chemical Co.

Oak Grove Baptist Church Honors Miss Diane Bratcher On Choir Day

Success of the annual Choir Day Program held recently at Oak Grove Baptist Church, 183 Joubert Avenue, was exemplified by the attendance of many outstanding guests, friends and members who filled the sanctuary to capacity.

The church was beautifully decorated by Mrs. Blanche Chandler, one of the members, who is owner of Chandler's Florist on Majuba.

Highlighting the program was the crowning of "Miss Oak Grove," the title won by Miss Diane Bratcher, graduate of Carver High School and daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Wiley Bratcher Sr. She was escorted by George Sanders.

A reception was held in her honor at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Socrates Holmes on Joubert Avenue. She was showered with many gifts from fellow contestants, choir members and friends.

First alternate was Miss Susie Thomas, a teacher at J. M. Speck Elementary School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Pratcher.
